

Code: BMI-FLMD-322:06

Course title: Minority Policy – Public Policy

Course convenors: Lídia Balogh

Class time and place: Every second week, Monday 08:30 – 11:45
ELTE Lágymányos Campus, North Block 7th floor, Room No. 7.59
First Class: 13th February 08:30 -10:00

Course type: Seminar

Course content: The course "Minority policies - public policies" is aimed at providing a general overview regarding the following topics: the concepts of minority rights and human rights; conflicts of individual and collective rights; equality and discrimination; reversed discrimination/affirmative action; data collection on minorities; the political representation of minorities; the media representation of minorities; the social inclusion of minorities; refugee protection. The course is conducted as a seminar; students are expected to read the required readings and prepare to be active in seminar discussions.
