GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE MA PROGRAM IN FILM STUDIES:

Part of the prestigious Institute for Art Theory and Media Studies, the Department of Film Studies has been hosting various undergraduate, graduate and postgraduate programs since the 1990s. By combining theoretical and practical knowledge, the MA program prepares students for jobs in various branches of the cultural/entertainment sector. The program includes two specializations: Film Theory Specialization and Filmmaking Specialization.

MA program title:

Film Studies

Education level and qualification received by those who have successfully completed the MA program:

- Education level: master degree (magister, master; abbreviation: MA)
- Qualification: Expert in Film Studies

Duration of the program:

4 semesters

Credits required for graduation:

120 credits

REQUIREMENTS FOR APPLICANTS:

Applicants have to be in the possession of a BA degree in any discipline. If the applicant has in the past not taken basic film studies courses, s/he can complete these courses at the department within two years after admittance. For general requirements and deadlines relevant for MA applicants please see <http://www.btk.elte.hu/en/Alias-177> Documents to be submitted by applicants:

1. Cover letter indicating why the applicant wishes to start the program, and what her special field of interest is.
2. Curriculum Vitae including applicant's previous achievements (scholarships, publications, conference presentations, completed films/videos, festival organization etc.).
3. English-language transcript with the list of completed courses in previous degree programs.
4. For applicants to the Film Theory Specialization: submit a research proposal of your intended thesis project with a study and research plan (detailed outline of your field of interest), a preliminary bibliography (indicated what you have read so far).
5. For applicants to the Filmmaking Specialization: submit your short film/video or other screen media product on a CD or DVD, or a one-page synopsis of your script.
6. There are no interviews for applicants, decision about acceptance are based on documents submitted.

Foreign language requirements:

Non-native speakers of English must demonstrate sufficient English-language skills by taking the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) exam. The minimum required score is 550 on the paper-based exam (PBT) or 80 on the Internet-based exam (iBT). We also accept IELTS exams with a score of 6.0 and above. (For the list of countries where English is considered as mother tongue see: <http://www.btk.elte.hu/en/Alias-246>)

MA THESIS AND FINAL EXAMINATION REQUIREMENTS:

MA thesis requirements for film theory specialization:

The thesis is the independent scientific work of the candidate, the topic of which is determined by the thesis adviser and the candidate from the field of study taught at the Department. It displays the knowledge of the candidate acquired in the MA Program, the literacy of the candidate in the international literature of the given scientific question, and the analytic skills of the candidate in the interpretation of screen media products. All cases where a student is suspected with plagiarism will be brought to the Board of Review.

Formal requirements:

Length: minimum 70.000 characters, maximum 140.000 characters without spaces (12.000-24.000 words) at a spacing of 1.5 and font size 12. From the AY 2020/21, the Thesis has to be submitted electronically, via Neptun. The Thesis needs to be prepared and uploaded in an electronic format (PDF, Word or zip). You can upload only 1 document/file to Neptun (including all attachments). While uploading it, the student needs to declare in Neptun that the Thesis is their own intellectual product. (Please, take the university's regulations regarding plagiarism-checking into consideration.) From September 2021, the supervisor's consent is needed for uploading the Thesis on all study programmes. For the approval, click on the button 'Thesis admission request' (in Neptun under Studies > Degree Thesis/Thesis application). The title page of the thesis must include the name of the author; the title of the MA thesis in Hungarian as well as in the language of the degree program; the name of the university, the faculty as well as the name of the program; the name of the thesis adviser; and the year of submission of the thesis.

Assessment:

Assessment is on a five-grade scale. During the evaluation, the referee must take into account whether the author has adhered to the prescribed requirements concerning content and form. The factors relevant for grading are: scientific achievement, familiarity with the literature as well as the ability to apply it in a professional manner, structured presentation and apt application of the results, potential topics for further research.

MA thesis requirements for filmmaking specialization:

The thesis project in the Filmmaking Specialization has to be submitted as a portfolio. The details and the format of the portfolio are to be determined in close collaboration with the adviser, but in all cases has to include:

- (1) creative film/video or other screen media project,
- (2) theoretical/historical description of the background of the chosen theme (the length of the theoretical/historical essay is between 20.000-30.000 characters without space - 3.500-5.000 words)
- (3) description of the phases of the work, i.e. a diary of the creative process. The length of the working diary is minimum 15.000 characters without space (3.000 words).
- (4) Students in Filmmaking Specialisation, whose thesis project includes a film or any other media product, have to upload in accordance with the university-wide regulations all the written materials (in one PDF document) in Neptun. Additionally they have to send all the 3 parts of their thesis work (film and written materials) with the help of Wetransfer (up to 2GB) <https://wetransfer.com/> or Myairbridge (up to 20 GB) <https://www.myairbridge.com/en/> to the e-mail of Milojev-Ferkó Zsanett (milojev.zsanett@btk.elte.hu) as a file (not a link) until the official deadline of thesis submission.

PREREQUISITES FOR THE FINAL EXAMINATION:

The prerequisites for the final examination are:

- the completion of the study unit list and exams specified in the curriculum for the program (with the exception of the thesis, the required foreign language state exam, and the final examination)
- the fulfillment of all training and completion requirements
- a certificate stating that the student has returned all property borrowed from the university.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MA FINAL EXAMINATION:

The final examinations are conducted orally.

Film Theory Specialization:

The final examination includes a combined examination of film history and film theory and the defense of the MA thesis. Students must prove that they have mastered the training requirements as well as the most important knowledge prescribed in the curriculum, and they must also show that they are capable of explaining the thesis in conversation in a nuanced and precise manner.

Filmmaking Specialization:

Detailed discussion of the portfolio including:

- (1) the creative film/video or other screen media products, and
- (2) the written contextual parts of the thesis project.

Evaluation and grading of final examination:

Assessment is on a five-grade scale. The examiners evaluate the expertise of the examinee in scientific/artistic areas related to the MA thesis topic, and also assess the professional background of the examinee along with his/her ability to carry out scientific/artistic discourse.

Method of degree grade calculation:

The grade of the degree is calculated as follows:

Thesis grade = 66.6%, final examination grade = 33.3%

DEGREE CERTIFICATE

The degree certificate states the mathematical average of the grade of the thesis and the grades received at the final examination.

According to Section 84 (6) of Academic Regulations, (HKR) the diploma is classified according to its average down to two decimals:

- outstanding (5), if the average is 5.00
- excellent (5), if the average is 4.51–4.99
- good (4), if the average is 3.51–4.50
- satisfactory (3), if the average is 2.51–3.50 - pass (2), if the average is 2.00–2.50.
