

Code: BMI-FLMD-378E.05

Course title: Making of short documentary

Course convenors: Gábor Ferenczi

Class time and place: Workshop on Wednesdays from 9 to 12 on given dates, 5 times during the semester

Course type: Practical work

Course content: During the practical course the students make a short or a long etude alone or in pairs. During the course they get familiar with the genre, how can they express subjectivity with the language of cinema. They will refine their knowledge in narration and they broaden their horizons in filmmaking. In the end of the course the students have to shoot a 9 minute long short film where they have to tell one day of a man/woman. The title of the short film should be: „Life is just a day!”

Requirements: Attendance is required and active presence during the class. Maximum one absence is acceptable.

Learning outcomes:

Indicative Reading:
