Course title: Haiku film course

Course convenors: András Salamon

Class time and place: 3 days in December - TBA

Course type: Practical work

Course content: In the course, students will be creating short films (2 min) individually. Reflecting the title of the course, we are following the rules of the Haiku-poems and adopting them into short films: 17 syllables means 17 cuts.

Requirements: Continuous and intensive presence in the course, respecting deadlines in the process of preparing and making the Haiku films.

Learning outcomes: Completing the course, students become capable of taking part in a crew with the aim of creating short films.
