

Code: FLMD-373E.04

Course title: Film directing 1.

Course convenors: András Salamon

Class time and place: Thursday 12:30 – 15:45 Studio

Course type: Practical work

Course content: In the first part of the semester students practice the basic elements of the film making. Including: photo and video studies, different assignments of basic-level visual story telling. In the second part of the course, students are creating 1-2 min long scenes with the aim of developing their skills of filmmaking.

Requirements: Regular and active presence, up to 3 absences

Learning outcomes: In the second part of the course, students are creating 1-2 min long scenes with the aim of developing their skills of filmmaking.

Indicative Reading:
