

Kurzus kódja(i): FLM-402.02, FLMD-311.02

Kurzus címe: Trends and Authors in Contemporary Hungarian Cinema (angol nyelvű kurzus)

Tanár neve: Hirsch Tibor

Kurzus időpontja, helye: kedd 14 00-15 30, 34

Vetítések időpontja, helye:

Kurzus típusa: Szeminárium

Kurzus leírása: The course gives an overview of contemporary Hungarian cinema. It consists of twelve lectures and will be accompanied with a compulsory screening series. To complete the course successfully students should prove the basic knowledge of the topic and it is also expected that they had watched some contemporary Hungarian films suggested on the list of movies.

In the first two introductory classes of the course:

students are getting familiar with the unique motives, the special sets of values, and the political conditions of the past which can reveal the roots and frames of the present artistic endeavours in Hungarian cinema, and they also receive a general survey of the contemporary situation.

In the lessons 3-12 we try to concentrate:

1. on the noteworthy representatives of the young generation: These members of the newer and the newest generation are: Kornél Mundruczó, Szabolcs Hajdú, Ágnes Kocsis, Benedek Flieghauf, György Pálfi
2. on some old masters' new and altering achievements, and on their changing position within the frame: e.g. János Szász, Péter Gothár, Ildiko Enyedi
3. on the ones who have got an international fame within post-modern cinema, and who (in global scale) deserve a closer approach when completing their unique universe: Béla Tarr, Miklos Jancso, Istvan Szabo

The two introductory classes are going to happen in traditional lecture-form: the lecturer offers his own view and interpretation of the topic reflecting on the film-examples which represent trends and periods of the past. The rest of the course which involves ten occasions are going to happen as an interactive film-analysis, where students are also requested to discuss the particular filmmakers' set of artistic values, virtues and shortcomings - together with the leader of the seminar. By this method of co-working we presume that all the films to discuss are known ones, so students have to see them just before the classes.
