ANALOGUE DREAMS

SUPER 8 WORKSHOP

The Analogue Dreams Super 8 Workshop is one of the few places in the world where you can try the „instant magic“ of analogue filmmaking. The workshop is happening as a side event at FILMFEST DRESDEN where British independent filmmaker and poet Derek Jarman is tributed. His Super 8 works to be screened at the festival manifest the free spirit of filmmaking.

4-DAY WORKSHOP

During the 4 days of the workshop participants will be shooting a short movie with easy to handle cameras. The movies will be made on Kodak film material. The workshop will take place during the 31st edition of FILMFEST DRESDEN from Wednesday, April 10th until Saturday, April 13th, 2019 (arrival date April 9th, departure date April 13th). Creative teams or individuals are eligible for application. Post production of the material will be done after the workshop, with skype/and online help by Csaba Bollók.

YOUR TUTOR

The workshop is led by Csaba Bollók, an internationally acclaimed writer-director, with a history of prize winning analogue works shot on Super8, 16mm and 35mm.

THE FEE & WHAT IS INCLUDED

There is a fee of 300 € per participant. This fee covers the workshop sessions plus the following costs: - accommodation & breakfast (double room shared with another workshop participant) - lunch (on workshop days only) - accreditation for all screenings/events at FILMFEST DRESDEN.
